1 Introduction

> It was the best of times, it was the worst of times.
> —Charles Dickens, A tale of two cities

It had been over a century since the last conflict among the civilised nations of Ceria. The campaign against Bucephal's legions had almost destroyed all of civilisation, and forced all the civilised nations to work towards peace. What followed was a generation of great people, who did everything to ensure another such catastrophe doesn't befall Ceria.
